

PERSONAL ANALYSIS

THE INSTRUCTOR WILL INFORM YOU OF THE NEXT STEP IN THE PROCEDURE.

The following is an analysis based upon your given birth information: date, time (if given) and geographical location. It is personal and drawn up specifically for you. This information has been kept confidential.

YOUR ANALYSIS:

You believe that while everyone should look out for themselves, you are willing to help others when they have difficulties. You obtain great satisfaction from doing small kindnesses, even when your action may not be recognized by others.

Though you are a person who tends to be forgiving of others' faults, and you try to trust them, once an acquaintance has proved to be dishonest or unworthy of your confidence, you watch them carefully.

This chart shows great interest. If you are not already in, or intending to enter, a "human services" career, you certainly should move in that direction. You would be very successful in such a profession.

While at times you have serious doubts as to whether you have made the right decision or done the right thing, you are disciplined and controlled on the outside. You tend to be worrisome and insecure on the inside. Your basic intuitions usually prove right, and you are an excellent judge of character.

Occasionally your aspirations tend to be pretty unrealistic. At times you can be extroverted, affable, sociable, while at other times you are introverted, wary and reserved – for reasons that are not clear to you. You have found it unwise to be too frank in revealing yourself to others. You pride yourself on being an independent thinker and do not accept others' opinions without satisfactory proof. You prefer a certain amount of change and variety in your life, and become dissatisfied when hemmed in by restrictions and limitations.

Your personal sexual adjustment has presented some problems for you. While you have some personality weaknesses, you are generally able to compensate for them. You have a great deal of unused capacity which you have not turned to your advantage. You have a tendency to be critical of yourself, and have a strong need for other people to like you and for them to admire you.

At this present date: You have had to recover from a disappointment, and you have determined to overcome it. You can expect a new person to enter your life, a person who may have come to your attention during the past twelve to fourteen days. Travel is clearly showing in your plans. Do not enter into money matters – no matter how minor! – without very serious consideration. This is a critical moon/Saturn period for you, and health circumstances can be important.
